2017 FORMULA 1 SINGAPORE AIRLINES SINGAPORE GRAND PRIX COMPLETE ENTERTAINMENT LINE-UP

ENTERTAINMENT ACTS
Calvin Harris Having broken world records and dominated global music charts, Calvin Harris stands as the figurehead for modern dance music. He became the first British solo artiste to reach more than one billion streams on Spotify, and currently has over five billion streams across all major streaming services, five billion video views, and 10 consecutive platinum singles. Over the years, Calvin Harris has received numerous accolades including a Grammy Award for Best Music Video, British Academy's Ivor Novello Award for Songwriter of the Year, a Billboard Music Award for Top Dance/Electronic Artist, two MTV Video Music Awards, an iHeartRadio Music Award and a Future Icon Award. Harris was also named GQ UK Man of the Year in 2016.
Ariana Grande Performing for the first time in Singapore at the 2017 FORMULA 1 SINGAPORE AIRLINES SINGAPORE GRAND PRIX, American television star turned pop singer Ariana Grande has won 39 awards including three American Music Awards, Music Business Association's Breakthrough Artist of the Year, an MTV Video Music Award as well as 109 nominations including four Grammy Award nominations. Her popularity is evident with her Instagram account being tagged as the fourth most followed, and solidified with the recognition as Time 100's Most Influential People In The World in 2016.
The Chainsmokers With over five billion global streams and three multi-platinum singles, Drew Taggart and Alex Pall of The Chainsmokers have performed worldwide to sold-out crowds at their own headline shows and major music festivals including SXSW, Ultra and Coachella. The New York based electronic dance music duo has also been recognised with a Grammy award for Best Dance Recording, an American Music Award, five iHeartRadio Music Awards with nominations for two Billboard Music Awards, two Teen Choice Awards and two MTV Video Music Awards.
Duran Duran Since their debut in 1981, iconic British rock band DURAN DURAN have released fourteen albums, garnered sales of more than 100 million records, and have been honoured with numerous prestigious accolades, including two Brit Awards, two Grammy Awards, seven Lifetime Achievement Awards and a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. They are also one of only a handful of artistes to have had albums in the US Top 10 across three decades – and one of even fewer to have had an astounding twenty singles land in the Top 20 since their inception.
OneRepublic Pop rock superstars OneRepublic gained mainstream fame with their 2007 smash hit 'Apologize' from their debut album Dreaming Out Loud. The single received the largest amount of airplay in radio history and was ranked Top 50 on the Billboard Hot 100's All-Time Top Songs list. The second hit single from their platinum debut album 'Stop and Stare' saw almost equal success.
Seal Since the beginning of his career in 1991, British multi-platinum singer-songwriter Seal has released nine studio albums, two live albums, two compilation albums, 28 singles and four video albums, with worldwide sales of his first eight studio albums exceeding 30 million.
George the Poet A London-born spoken word performer of Ugandan heritage, George the Poet's innovative brand of musical poetry has won him critical acclaim both as a recording artist and a social commentator.
Lianne La Havas British singer-songwriter Lianne La Havas made a huge breakthrough with her top five debut album in 2012 Is Your Love Big Enough? which sold 200,000 copies and won Album of the Year at iTunes as well as Barclaycard Mercury Prize and Ivor Novello Best Album nominations. Dubbed Britain's next big female star by Daily Mail, her debut single of the same name provided more highlights in its lifecycle than many artistes experience in their entire career – with over 120 shows across Europe, North America, Japan and London.
